LOCAL COUNT OF VOTES NEARING END

J. R. KNOWLAND LEADS SHORTRIDGE IN STATE

Fredericks to Make Race for Governorship, Dr. Derrick for Congress

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27.—Partial returns from all the state at 2 o'clock this afternoon give Knowland a lead of 24,280 over Shortridge for the Republican nomination for United States Senator.

JOHN D. FREDERICKS of Los Angeles, Republican nominee for Governor of California, and Congressman Joseph Russell Knowland of Alameda, nominee for United States Senator, stand forth today as the gallant leaders of the Grand Old Party in the State.

Together they have won their nominations by popular will. Together they have united regions of the State, divided by factional disputes for years, into one political organism. Together they have drawn record-breaking primary votes in the northern cities of the State, and they swept the southland in what appears to be an astounding personal triumph.

Late returns from Los Angeles county, 330 precincts complete out of 563, give Fredericks 16,714, Keesling 1973, Ralston 1133, and Belshaw $19. In the same precincts the senatorial vote was Knowland 11,790, Shortridge 7333.

White carried the Democratic primary in these precincts, and Phelan received 5798 Democratic votes for Senatorial nominee as against Griffin's 486. In the Progressive field Heney drew 9095 votes, Rowell 3002.

As was to be expected, this county gave Bordwell a tremendous vote for chief justice of the supreme court.

RACE FOR LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR.

In the lieutenant-governorship race Eshleman barely carried the precincts. He received 5314 votes against 5773 for Helen K. Williams. It is significant that this is the first county unofficially reported as yet in which Mrs. Williams has run high.

Of interest was the congressional melee to select party candidates for Knowland's chair in the lower house. This is what occurred:

Justice of the Peace William R. Geary of East Oakland had more persons vote for him than did any other aspirant. He carried the Democratic nomination and his name will not appear on the ballot, because he was defeated for the Progressive nomination in his own party by J. Arthur Elston of Berkeley.

And by being a candidate on three party ballots Geary eliminated Philip R. Walsh from the race. It is conceded among political dopesters that Geary drew votes from Walsh and made it easy for Dr. Derrick to take the Republican lead.

The congressional candidates, therefore, are Derrick, Republican; Elston, Progressive, and Luttrell, Democrat.

In Fresno county Fredericks led the Republican aspirants, scoring in 156 precincts 1877 votes. Keesling polled 1025, Ralston 629 and Belshaw 520.

CURTIN'S PROSPECTS BRIGHT.

Curtin, in the same returns, was easily Fresno county's choice for Democratic nominee. The vote in this division of the primary was Curtin 1632, Hall 1136, King 909, Van Wyck 531 and White 766.

As in Alameda county Keesling drew the highest Republican vote in Sacramento county. In 141 precincts, only one being missing, the count stood: Keesling 3144, Fredericks 3027, Belshaw 527, Ralston 532.

Van Wyck carried these precincts in the Democratic lists, 1323 votes to Hall's 863, the other aspirants trailing below.

Despite this and other reverses in returns, however, Hall and Curtin both passed White, who had led in the state for the Democratic nomination, Hall being in the front for several hours until gradually Curtin passed him. Curtin bids fair to be the Democratic nominee.

The nomination of Captain Fredericks is not more gratifying to him and his followers than the extraordinary vitality shown by the Republican party in the primary. Such in the assertion put forth today by W. R. Bacon, chairman of the campaign committee.

RECEIVING CONGRATULATIONS.

"The fact that all three candidates who opposed Captain Fredericks for the Republican nomination have sent their congratulations to the captain in Los Angeles," said Bacon, and have promised that they will support him to the limit of their energy and ability, shows how completely the Republican party is in harmony.

"This splendid demonstration of party loyalty on the part of the Republican leaders will be reflected in the rank and file of the party throughout the state in November. While no figures of a definite character are available, it is apparent that fully 75 per cent of the Republican strength was polled at the primaries. Considering that a heavier vote is always polled in the finals, this means that Captain Fredericks will be elected governor by a very large majority.

RESENT "SNEAKING IN."

"If there is one thing the Republicans of California will resent it is the political thievery of Progressive candidates who, facing defeat in their own party, have sneaked into the Republican ranks to steal a nomination. The fact that John Eshleman has secured the Republican nomination for lieutenant-governor will cut no figure in the fight for the governorship. Thousands of Republicans seeing Eshleman's name on the ballot—and no man has been more widely advertised than Eshleman—voted for him in ignorance. The Republicans will not be deceived by such a trick."

Although it cannot be yet stated as a fact, present indications are that Captain Fredericks will have carried Northern California by a small plurality, and with his overwhelming plurality, amounting in many instances to a majority of the Republican vote, in Southern California, his strength has the logical candidate to lead the party to victory in November has been demonstrated. In efficiency, courage and all those sterling qualities which go to make a leader, Captain Fredericks has been tested and I believe that with the more thorough acquaintance the people of this state will have necessarily with the character and ideals of Captain Fredericks, that he will not only hold all Republicans to his standard, but will win back to that name thousands of Progressives, and many of the Democrats."

HOW BALLOT WILL LOOK AT NOVEMBER ELECTION

Nothing but the official canvass of votes cast in California's first election under its newest direct primary law will determine in several offices who shall be the candidates of their parties.

Nominees of the Republican party in all higher state and county offices are now virtually all determined. In the Progressive party also there is slight chance of reversal of nominations by later returns. But the Democratic party is still in doubt as to whom it has nominated for Governor. Curtin is now leading.

The matter was discussed by the new minister of war, Alexandre Millerand, with the subordinates of his department and steps were taken to determine the exact measures necessary to place the city in a state to withstand an attack and invasion.

War News "Promising Augury for Future"

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Aug. 27, 5:10 p. m.—From both sea and land there came today official reports considered here to be a promising augury for the future.

The German transatlantic liner Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, at one time one of the most popular vessels of the North German Lloyd line sailing from New York, and one of the few German armed merchantmen which have been harrying Great Britain's trade routes, was sunk off the African coast by the British cruiser High Flier.

From the continent Field Marshal Sir John French, commander-in-chief of the British expeditionary forces, has been able to set at rest much of the anxiety caused in England by the vagueness of French official statements regarding the movements of armies in the locality where the British forces were known to be operating.

His dispatch takes a rosy view of the prospects of the battle now in progress, and pays a tribute to the mettle of his French ally.

Much of the apprehension felt here can be traced to the rigid censorship maintained by the British authorities. Two million men have been grappling in a titanic struggle for days past within a few hours journey of London, yet so complete is the silence of those who are aware of what is going on that the public is in all but complete ignorance.

Woman's Body Found; May Be Murder Case

An unidentified woman's body, believed to be that of Miss Celia Stevenson, who disappeared from San Francisco several months ago, was found this morning in a lonely gulch near Sunol. The remains were come upon by a rancher named J. Petersen. He notified authorities, who summoned from San Francisco Mrs. James Deasy of 244 Van Ness avenue, a sister of Miss Stevenson, in the hope that clothes might lead to identification.

The woman had been dead for about four months and the body was badly decomposed. Deputy Coroner Graham of Pleasanton has the corpse.

He is unable to ascertain without autopsy whether or not the woman met with a violent death.

She was clad in a gray coat, short waist and dark skirt, with low cut shoes and a straw hat with a narrow brim and high crown.

U. S. War Tax on Beer and Tobacco Planned

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—War revenue legislation to add $100,000,000 to the government's annual income, was considered today by the Senate Finance Committee.

It is understood generally that the plan for a tax on tobacco, beer and liquors and possibly a stamp tax will be carried out. Such a bill's introduction in the House is expected to add immediately a message from President Wilson asking for such legislation.

BRITISH WARSHIP SENDS STEAMSHIP TO BOTTOM

Czar's Soldiers, by Terrific Advance, Cause Germans to Retreat

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Aug. 27, 4:52 p. m.—The Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse has been sunk off the west coast of Africa by the British cruiser High Flier.

Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, announced the sinking of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse in the House of Commons today. He said:

"The admiralty has just received intelligence that the German armed merchant cruiser Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse of 14,000 tons and armed with ten four-inch guns, has been sunk by H. M. S. High Flier off the west coast of Africa.

INTERFERED WITH TRAFFIC.

"This is the vessel which has been interfering with traffic between this country and the Cape and is one of the very few German armed auxiliary cruisers which succeeded in getting to sea. The survivors were landed before the vessel sank. The High Flier had one killed and five wounded."

The Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse was one of the palatial steamers of the North German-Lloyd line. At the outbreak of the war she was converted into an armed cruiser and since has been reported active in searching for British merchantmen. She has a tonnage of 14,349 and was built in 1897. She was 626 feet long with a beam of sixty-six feet.

BERLIN, Aug. 27.—(By wireless to the Associated Press, via Sayville, Long Island, 7:45 a. m.)—All the forts at Namur have fallen and Longwy, near the Luxembourg border, has been captured after a resolute defense. The French forces which attacked the German Crown Prince's army have been repulsed. Upper Alsace is free of the enemy except at points to the westward of Kolmar.

STEAMER BLOWN UP; EIGHT DIE.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Aug. 27, 2:46 p. m.—The Norwegian steamer Gottfried has been blown up in the North Sea by a floating mine. Eight members of her crew lost their lives.

The captain of the trawler and three others were picked up from floating wreckage and brought into Shields by the fishing boat Norden. Officers of the latter say they were alarmed all through the night by distant explosions which followed each other at intervals. At about 6 o'clock in the morning the lookout on the Norden sighted and picked up a man floating on a plank. He declared that the Gottfried had been blown up three hours before.

The Norwegian steamer Gottfried was built at Stockholm in 1908. She was 110 feet long and 22 feet deep. She had a crew of 20 men. The dead man had been literally blown to pieces. Later the captain of the Gottfried was found floating in a life belt and two others of her complement were rescued from floating wreckage.

AUSTRIANS EVACUATE TERRITORY.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Aug. 27, 3:22 p. m.—A dispatch to the Havas Agency from Kragujevac, Serbia, declares that the Austrian army has evacuated the territory.

The S. anak of Novi-Pazar is a strip of territory lying between Montenegro and Serbia. Up to the time of the Balkan War in 1913 it belonged to Turkey.

By the Berlin treaty of 1873 Austria-Hungary was empowered to garrison certain strategic points within the Sanjak, but these troops, following the annexation by Austria of the provinces of Bosnia and Herzegovina, were withdrawn.

During the Balkan wars Austria-Hungary again seized on the occasion to occupy the Sanjak and this occupation in large measure served to neutralize the Serbian victories in those wars.

GERMANS OCCUPY LILLE.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Aug. 27, 10:40 a. m.—A dispatch here from Ostend says the Germans have occupied Lille, Roubaix and Valenciennes, all in France.

The towns of Roubaix, Lille and Valenciennes are close to the Belgian frontier. Lille and Valenciennes being ten miles from the line and Roubaix five. Roubaix is five miles northeast of Lille, and Valenciennes is thirty miles southeast of the same city.

Lille is the most important from a military point of view. It has a fortification of the first class and the circle of its forts is thirty miles. Recent dispatches from Paris said Lille was held by French reservists. Roubaix would appear not to be fortified. It is a manufacturing center.

Valenciennes also is a manufacturing city and is an important military point. It has an arsenal and extensive barracks.

The Ostend correspondent of the London Daily Express in a dispatch published in London this morning quoted a Belgian officer to the effect that it had been decided last Monday to defend Lille, and that on Tuesday the Mayor published a proclamation announcing the evacuation of the French troops and the transformation of the town into an undefended place.

"All the gendarmes were disarmed and steps were taken to deliver the city with all its rich factories, up to the Germans," this officer declared. "Tuesday evening all the available treasure was removed."

PEOPLE GIVEN AMMUNITION.
By Associated Press.
BRUXELLES, Aug. 27.—The war correspondent of the Zeitungs am Mittag gives interviews with many inhabitants of the desolated region in the war fields of Belgium showing that the Franco-Tireur organizations (irregulars) were created with the sanction and support of the authorities, who without doubt, according to these people's statements, supplied the civil population with ammunition. As a result of the severe measures systematically adopted by the Germans this warfare of the Franco-Tireurs has been nearly stamped out.

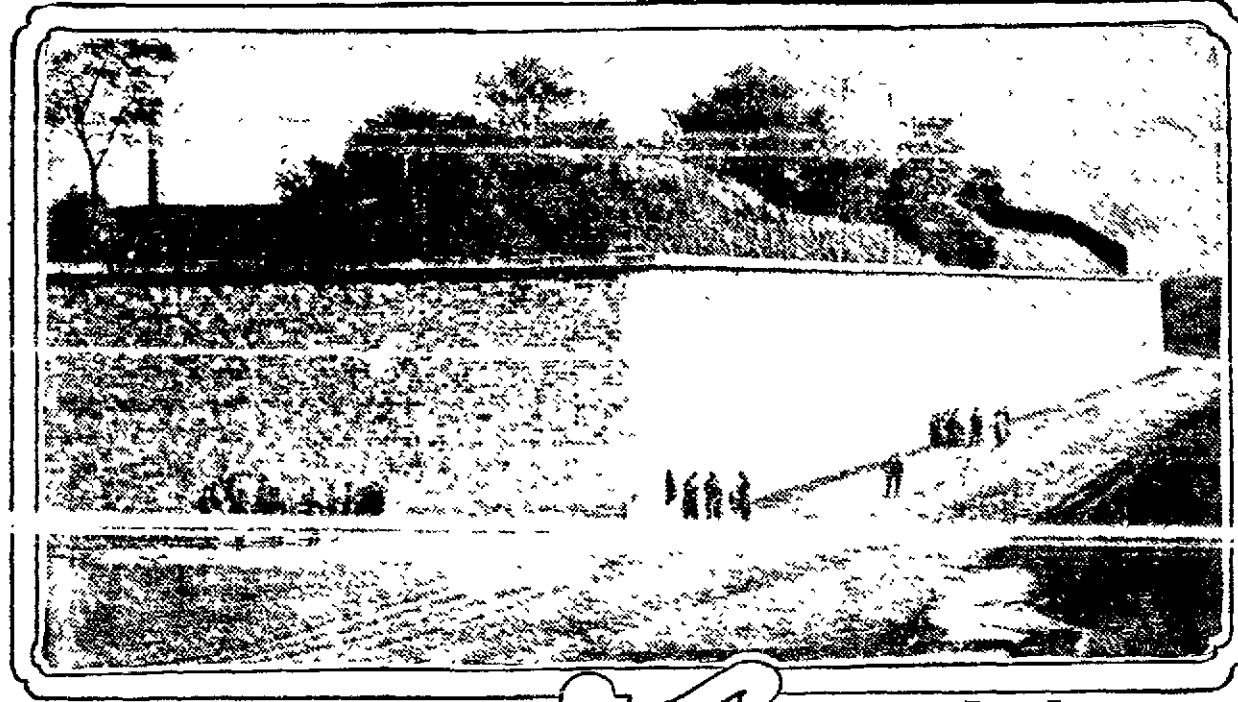

The correspondent attests the bravery of the irregulars, who have been proved by the German losses.

The Tageblatt's correspondent writes that Namur was bombarded with howitzers. He says he could plainly hear the shells striking the forts and that everyone was astonished at the precision of the German guns.

DESOLATION IN VILLAGES.
The Tageblatt's correspondent describes the desolation that reigns in the villages and small towns between Liege and Namur. At the town of Herve only nineteen houses remain standing out of 600. Those remaining carry placards expressing sympathy with the German soldiers and asking that they not be fired upon.

The success of the German army in Belgium, says the Tageblatt, is attributed by military experts to the swiftness with which the German operations were carried through and also to the delay of assistance promised by the French, who

THE SUCCESSES OF THE GERMANS IN BELGIUM HAVE ALREADY CAUSED THE FRENCH TO MAN THE FORTIFICATIONS OF PARIS, WHICH IS THE OBJECT OF THE GERMAN ARMY OF THE NORTH. THEY ARE REGARDED AS AMONG THE STRONGEST FORTIFICATIONS IN THE WORLD.

WAR DEVELOPMENTS OF DAY SUMMARIZED

By Associated Press.
The Germans have occupied the French cities of Lille, Valenciennes and Roubaix, according to a dispatch from Ostend, Belgium, which passed through the hands of the censor at London. All three cities are situated within a few miles of the Belgian frontier and Lille is strongly fortified.

Valenciennes is a military station of less importance. While Roubaix is known chiefly as a manufacturing center. Exact knowledge of the importance of this movement awaits official information. Earlier dispatches from Ostend quoted a Belgian officer as authority for the statement that the allies had decided not to defend Lille and that its evacuation by the French troops was announced by the mayor Tuesday.

A wireless dispatch direct from Berlin early today brought the official announcement that all the forts at Namur had fallen before the Germans, who had also captured Longwy. The army of the Crown Prince, it was added, had repulsed a French attack and upper Alsace was free of the enemy, except at points westward of Kolmar.

The Belgian operations were reported to have been completely successful in an official statement that came from Ostend by way of Paris after midnight.

Four Belgian divisions from Namur were said to have stopped the southward movement of the German Fourth division, after which the Belgians retired on the French line. The forts at Namur were still holding out, it was declared. This claim regarding the Namur fortifications was repeated later by an English correspondent at Ostend, who quoted a Belgian officer who had arrived from Namur. He said that the Germans had destroyed two forts and were still assaulting the others.

It is officially announced at St. Petersburg that the Russian advance in Prussia is proceeding with regularity. It has been before been stated that the objective point of the main Russian army for the present is Posen. The Germans are reported as having retired to Osterode, in East Prussia.

A merchant arriving in London from Berlin is credited with the statement that the trains are bringing many refugees to the German capital from Königsberg, which city, he claimed, civilians had been advised to leave.

Diplomatic relations between Austria and Japan apparently have been formally severed. A dispatch direct from Tokyo states that the Austrian ambassador, Baron Muller de Szentgorgy, has been recalled. A blockade of the leased territory of Kiaochow has been declared by the Japanese, whose warships shelled a small island off the coast. This information comes from Tsingtau. The same correspondent states that so far as can be observed the Japanese have not yet sent a landing party ashore.

The Japanese minister of justice, Toku Ozaki, announces that hostilities in the China and Japan seas will end with the capture of Kiaochow, which Japan will become a spectator instead of a participant in the war.

To add, however, that if the Germans should prove a menace to the peace through their standings in the south seas, Japan would consult with Great Britain and might co-operate in driving the enemy of the allies out of the Orient.

Keen interest continues in the attitude that Italy will eventually assume. A Rome correspondent of the London Times says that Germany and Austria are bringing great pressure to bear, offering Italy inducements to join them. Newspaper dispatches represent the Italian people as more favorable to a war against Austria. It is to be noted, however, that these reports lack official confirmation. A dispatch from Kragujevac, Serbia, says that the Austrian army has evacuated Sanjak, province of Novopazar.

The Norwegian steamer Gottfried struck a mine in the North Sea and was destroyed. Eight of her crew were lost.

WAR NEWS IN BRIEF

TOKIO, Aug. 27.—News of the declaration of war by Austria-Hungary on ment of the disarming of the Austrian cruiser Kaiserin Elizabeth in the port of Tsingtau caused surprise in Tokio. It had been hoped here that Austria-Hungary, having but small interests in the Far East, would not force a breach of relations with Japan, especially as Austria-Hungary always has been regarded as friendly to Japan. Baron Mueller de Szentgorgy, the Austrian Ambassador, and the members of his staff always have been popular here.

The crushing of news from China is most effective. It is believed here, however, that Japan has not yet landed troops at Kiaochow, the German leased territory in China, against which she has begun military operations. There is reason to believe that the Japanese navy is carefully sweeping the waters around Kiaochow for mines, which it is known, have been submerged recently in large numbers.

Assurances have been received here from Peking that President Yuan Shi Kai and his government are amply satisfied with Japan's pledges concerning the future safeguarding of China and British interests and the maintenance of commercial status quo, and has promise of assistance to prevent Chinese revolutionists from seizing this position to create disorder.

Says Ambassador Is "Minding Own Business"

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—President Wilson declared today that his advisers from American Minister Brand Whitlock at Brussels show that he is "minding his own business" and that many published stories of Whitlock's activities were "fanciful inventions." WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—The German embassy today received the following by wireless from the Foreign Office at Berlin:

"Assistant Secretary Brackenridge has expressed his thanks to the German Foreign Office for its assistance in aiding the departure of Americans from Germany."

"A large number of British living in Vienna, it is learned here, have expressed their sympathy for Austria."

The Russian defeat at Krasnik was an irretrievable Austrian victory, according to the Russian main force in Russian Poland thus being defeated, a swift Austrian advance northward is expected. Vienna reports that Liman Pasha has been appointed Commander-in-Chief of the Turkish European troops.

The small cruiser Magdeburg, entering the Finnish Bay, ran aground after a fight with superior forces and was blown up by her captain. Most of the crew were saved.

Liman Pasha is the German military commander of the Turkish army, having been named by Germany to Turkey for that purpose.

The sinking of the Magdeburg was not described but it is supposed at the Embassy that the battle was with some Russian vessels.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27.—Cannooding at sea, heard from Oregon coast points north and south of Coos Bay at a distance of 20 miles, tells of a fight yesterday morning between allied and German vessels.

It is believed that the British cruiser Newcastle, now definitely known to be in these waters, with the Japanese cruiser Matsushima or perhaps alone, has engaged the Leipzig and Nürnberg. The result is unknown.

Dispatches from the Coos Bay country yesterday were positive of the following facts:

Late Thursday afternoon the Leipzig and Nürnberg were sighted in close contact from Coos Bay.

A short time later another cruiser, reported to be the Japanese cruiser Izumo, was now believed to have been in the Newcastle.

About 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning heavy cannonading was heard at sea from points covering 60 to 70 miles along the coast.

The cannonading was not a mere rumor, but was vouched for by me of high standing and judgment.

FIRST COUNT OF BALLOTS GIVEN UP

Many Counties Abandon Effort to Tabulate Election Returns.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27.—With the election officers of a number of counties, including San Francisco, having abandoned the first informal count of the ballots and started in upon the official canvass, results of Tuesday's primaries in cases of close contests must await the determination of the official count.

Straggling returns that drifted in today did not affect previous totals materially, nor indicate that there would be any change in the relative strength of candidates as developed by last night's count. The Democratic gubernatorial contest remains hard to gauge, but J. B. Curtin is holding his lead, with Fred H. Hall second.

'I GAVE AWAY MY OLD SUIT'

Didn't Need It Any More, After My Trip to Cherry's.

"Say, that was 'some trip!' Want to hear about it? Well—

"I needed a new suit. I'd worn all the life out of my old one—it looked 'ordinary' and almost shabby. When I remarked to a fellow the other day that my old suit had lost its style, he said: 'Look here, why don't you buy the kind of suits that hold their class' as long as they hold their stitches? Try CHERRY'S for your next suit!'

"Those words struck home. You see, I'd been hearing about that store lately at every turn. At the club I've heard Cherry's name—at the office—on the street—all around town. And every man was enthusiastic when he talked about the CREDIT TERMS at Cherry's.

"A broad hint is enough for me—of course I went in. CHERRY'S outfit—

"I went in at 1009 Market and the ladies' store is just across the street at 515 Thirteenth street. What they tell you there is the TRUTH and Installation Payments are very easy to arrange. The San Francisco stores are at 1009 Market and 2400 Mission.

COTTON DEMAND TO AFFECT FARMS

Suspension of Operations in Europe Changes Southern Situation.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—That the movement for diversified farming in the South will be hastened by the suspension of operations in hundreds of European cotton mills was the opinion expressed today by government officials who took part in the recent cotton conference here.

Those who have studied problems facing the cotton grower believe the present emergency most probably will result in economic changes in the south, the slowing of other crops besides cotton, an expansion into diversified farming and agricultural development along new lines.

The government is expected to add the fact that the cotton crop is not as large as it has been in the past. It has been suggested that with a large part of this year's yield destined for war purposes, it will be useless for the planters to plan for full crops next year. It was said today that government officials have made it known to cotton growers that they plant cotton on part of their area hereafter devoted to it and try other crops. Economists here believe that if this experiment is tried it may prove of great benefit to the South. Up to this time, they point out, it has been almost impossible to get cotton growers to plant other crops, but faced with the prospect of no market or a restricted one, the argument for diversified farming may have added weight.

TO HOLD FUNERAL SERVICE.

The funeral of George L. Brown, a retired lumber merchant of Detroit, Mich., will be conducted tomorrow afternoon from the family residence, 576 Staten avenue, where he had resided for a number of years. Rev. Francis J. Van Horn will read the service. The body will be buried in Old Mount, N. Y., in 1914. He is survived by a widow, two sisters and a brother in Portland, Or. The body will be interred in Mountain View Cemetery.

To Put on Flesh and Increase Weight

A Physician's Advice.

Most thin people eat from four to six pounds of good solid fat-making food every day and still do not increase in weight one ounce, while on the other hand many of the plump, chunky folks eat very lightly and keep gaining all the time. It is all due to the fact that this is the nature of the individual. It isn't Nature's way at all.

Thin folks stay thin because their power of assimilation is defective. They don't get enough of the food they eat to maintain life and a semblance of health and strength. Stuffing won't help them. A dozen meals a day won't make them gain a single "stat" there's pound. All the fat-producing elements of their food just stay in the intestines until they pass from the body as waste. What such people need is something that will prepare these fatty food elements so that their blood can absorb them and deposit them all about the body—something, in fact, that will multiply their red blood corpuscles and increase their blood's carrying power.

For such conditions I always recommend eating a Sargol tablet with every meal. Sargol is not, as some believe, a patented drug, but is a scientific combination of six of the most effective and powerful flesh building elements known to chemistry. It is absolutely harmless. A wonderful effect is obtained by a single tablet, eaten with each meal often has the effect of increasing the weight of a thin man or woman from three to five pounds a week. Sargol is sold by Osborn Bros. Drug Stores and other good druggists everywhere on a positive guarantee of weight increase or money back.

VALLEJO PUTS ON CARNIVAL ATTIRE

City Bedecked in Bunting and Flags for N. S. G. W. Celebration.

VALLEJO, Aug. 27.—With the Admission Day celebration less than two weeks distant, this city is sprucing and bedecking in carnival attire.

Decorators invaded Vallejo the early part of the present week and in the interim such a change has taken place that it is quite evident that something very much out of the ordinary in the way of carnivals is about to take place. And the contagion of the festive spirit has spread to all parts of the city.

One of the decorative features which will be a permanent exhibit here is the double string of electrolights which are being erected the full length of Virginia street through the business section. This lighting system will be a counterpart of that on Georgia street, the main artery of this city.

COUNTY BRIDGE IS BURNED DOWN

Keswick Structure Destroyed in Mysterious Blaze;

KESWICK, Aug. 27.—The county bridge across the Sacramento river was destroyed by a fire that originated at the east end. The bridge was a combination wood and steel structure. The fire swept across the structure with the speed of the wind. There was no means of fighting the flames. The bridge was erected in 1900 at a cost of $3000. Three years later two bents and one pier were swept away by flood waters. The bridge was repaired at a cost of $5400. No insurance was carried.

WILLIAMS, Aug. 27.—Four-year-old Frederick Planett, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Planett of this city, has established a mountain climbing record at Shasta Retreat, where the Planetts are staying. The little fellow climbed unaided to the top of Mount Bradley, some six thousand feet high. His mother was with him.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 27.—Although the directors of the State fair had planned that the engines purchased for a head-on collision test should have a rehearsal, Fate decreed otherwise, for the engines were found yesterday morning by the yardmen at Richmond badly smashed up. Their pilots were broken and the fronts of the big locomotives were dented.

COLUMA, Aug. 27.—A still for the manufacture of home-made whisky is in the possession of Internal revenue officers, who found it on the plantation of George M. Hoffman, near Colusa. According to the government men, the still doesn't seem to have been the particular property of any one planter, but was passed around from place to place for use. The officials swooped down upon the Hoffman farm one day early last week. No arrests have been made.

Boat Within 15 Miles of Stefansson Forces; Is Driven Back.

NOME, Alaska, Aug. 27.—After having been within 15 miles of Wrangell Island, where the wrecked Stefansson exploring ship, Karluk, was last winter, the power schooner P. J. Abler found her gasoline supply running low and was compelled to turn about and head for Nome. This was the report made here yesterday by Captain Annenik of the Abler, upon his return from a valiant hunting expedition into the Arctic.

"There was no ice along the Siberian coast as far north as we went," said Captain Annenik, "but we could see a heavy pack surrounding Wrangell Island. We were within 15 miles of the island when a heavy fog set in and as

HOW TO PREVENT ACID STOMACHS AND FOOD FERMENTATION

By a Stomach Specialist.
As a specialist who has spent many years in the study and treatment of stomach troubles, I have been forced to the conclusion that most people who complain of stomach trouble possess stomachs that are absolutely healthy and normal. The real trouble, that which causes all the pain and difficulty, is excessive acid in the stomach, aggravated by food fermentation. Hyperacidity irritates the delicate lining of the stomach and food fermentation causes wind, which distends the stomach abnormally, causing that full, bloated feeling. Thus both acid and fermentation interfere with and retard the process of digestion. The stomach is usually healthy and normal, but irritated almost past endurance by these foreign elements—acid and wind. In all such cases—and they comprise over 90 per cent of all stomach difficulties—the first and only step necessary is to neutralize the acid and stop the fermentation by taking in a little warm or cold water immediately after eating, from one to two teaspoonsful of saturated magnesia, which is doubtless the best and only really effective antacid and food corrector known. The acid will be neutralized and the fermentation stopped almost instantly, and your stomach will at once proceed to digest the food in a healthy, normal manner. Be sure to ask your druggist for the saturated magnesia, as I have found other forms utterly lacking in its peculiarly valuable properties.—F. J. G.

GOVERNOR'S DAUGHTER RECOVERS FROM ILLNESS

CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—Jeanette Dunne, daughter of Governor Edward F. Dunne, is a happy child, because she is going to be well, because in a few days, or weeks, or months, she will be able to run on the green grass, to chase butterflies, to do everything that little girls of her age can do.

Jeanette is 12 years old. She has been troubled by a crooked spine. A few weeks ago the governor heard of Dr. John L. Porter of St. Luke's Hospital. The surgeon, it was said, had performed a wonderful operation on a girl of Jeanette's age. He took from the left a tiny piece of bone, and transplanted it in the spine. The girl, who was a cripple, became straighter than many children who were born perfect.

So Jeanette and her father, and others of the Dunne family, came to Chicago, and an identical operation was performed.

"It was not a new operation," explained Dr. Porter. "It has been done several times. The principle of the operation is that the piece of bone, transplanted into the dead bone of the spine, straightens out the spinal column and absolutely cures spinal tuberculosis. It's a very simple thing and nearly always successful."

Jeanette is in charge of a graduate nurse. Just how long she will have to stay in the hospital is a matter of conjecture, but the nurse declares the girl is making rapid progress toward recovery.

FIX STATE RATE FOR 1915 FAIR

Over Three Cents on $100 of Taxable Property Will Be Levied.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27.—The State rate of tax in aid of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco for this year will be 2 cents and 9 mills on each $100 of taxable property, so the State Board of Equalization decided yesterday. Reports from the County Auditors show that California's total assessment wealth in 1914 foots up a total of $3,022,450,546.

The total in this respect for last year was $2,114,136,640, showing an increase in assessments of $88,313,906. Of this increase $60,538,751 was made on the non-operative or county assessment roll and $27,775,155 is assigned to the operative, or public service roll. In other words, the assessable value upon which the counties will reap taxes is $2,694,088,860, while the exempt or public service roll is $358,361,686.

A segregation of the non-operative or county assessments shows as follows: Value of all lands and town lots, $1,718,498,284; value of all improvements, $564,795,284; value of all personal property, $289,764,711; value of all money and solvent creditors, $31,120,583. Total, $2,694,088,860.

In November, 1910, the people by a constitutional amendment agreed to raise $5,000,000 to give to San Francisco in aid of the World's Fair to be held in 1915, which amount was to be raised in four equal installments of $1,250,000. In the three preceding years the State has raised and turned over to the Exposition managers $3,814,944.00, leaving a balance of $1,185,568.50 to be raised this year.

The State Board of Equalization will meet on Tuesday, September 8th next, and formally fix the tax rates.

REPTILE LIVES IN CANINE.
MOUNT OLIVE, N. C., Aug. 27.—When a valuable dog belonging to A. R. Hooks died without apparent cause recently, its owner took the body to a veterinarian for an autopsy. When the body was opened a garter snake two feet long was found wrapped around the remains of the dog's liver.

Don't Poison Baby.

Forty Years Ago almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIC or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and a few drops too many will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is, "a medicine which produces sleep, coma, convulsions and death." The use and small doses of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrup," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without first consulting your physician.

What it is composed of, CASTORIA DOES NOT CONTAIN NARCOTICS, if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

MACDONOUGH

Nothing even approaching "Cabrera," the astonishing photo spectacle now running at the Macdonough theater, has ever been produced. Its scenes and incidents possess about every quality usually regarded as necessary in the greatest of spoken dramas. While the battle scenes are terrific and grippingly interesting, there runs throughout the story a tender romance that reaches a happy conclusion only at the very end of this remarkable work of the Italian genius Gabriele D'Annunzio. Few people of the throngs that are attending the performances of "Cabrera" are aware that the actor playing the part of Maciste, the Numidian slave of Fulvius, and a veritable giant, was discovered leading cotton bales on the docks at Genoa. All applicants had failed to qualify for this unusual role. Several months were allotted to his education in gestures and other requisites of a motion picture player. All the supernumeraries seen in action throughout the picture underwent a course of physical culture prior to their undertaking the strenuous work of this gigantic production. The costumes are historically correct to the minutest detail, the costumes plots having taken months of time in their preparation by the directors.

BROADWAY

Low Dockstader, the famous minstrel and portrayer of the black face characters, is the latest addition to the extraordinary list of notable theatrical stars and favorites to appear in motion pictures at the Broadway theater. With a name known from one end of the world to the other as the greatest of fun makers and blackface actors, Low Dockstader in this, his first appearance before the motion picture camera, proves conclusively that he is destined to occupy a most prominent position among those of the speaking stage who have already made for themselves an enviable reputation in the silent drama.

In support of Dockstader the All Star Feature Corporation present a remarkable cast of well known stars. Call Kane, Hal Reid, the author; Lois Meredith and George Cowi.

For the vehicle in which Dockstader stars and producers have carefully combed the fields, finally choosing a powerful heart interest story of slavery days and the Civil war, "Dixie," which is from the pen of Hal Reid.

The other pictures on the bill are well selected to make up a good two-hour show that will be run for the balance of the week.

ORPHEUM

The wonderful art of Bertha Kalich is proving a magnet at the Oakland Orpheum that is responsible for large crowds. Mrs. Kalich is regarded by judicious critics as the greatest emotional actress on the stage. She has appeared in some of the most pretentious productions in America during the last few years and is to be starred by Elmer & Erlanger in one of Brierley's plays during the coming season. She appears at the Orpheum in the epilogue to Schenck's famous "Mariana," one of the most powerful bits of drama ever written. That she should triumph in such a play is a foregone conclusion.

There is abundance of delightful comedy provided by Will Rogers, known as "The Oklahoma Cowboy." His skill at throwing the hat is equalled by his facility as a comedian. His character is highly diverting and sparkles with wit of the real sort.

The Mozarts provide a splendid novelty in a snow scene in which they dance on snowshoes, something attempted by no other performers. Fred Mozart is a splendid yodeler and Eva Mozart is a fine foil for his clever fooling.

Josephine Dauden, a prima donna of the Gilbert & Sullivan Opera Company, when that aggregation of all stars appeared in New York last winter, rendered grand opera bits in the most approved style.

James T. Duffy and Mercedes Lorenz have one of the classic musical comedy songs of the year, which they have entitled "Springtime." It is replete with charm, full of bright lines and bits of sweet song and entertaining throughout.

Eyrl Crowell, a beautiful girl with a delightful voice, renders some songs that are thoroughly appreciated by the crowds. The Trans-Atlantic Trio in a novel musical offering round out the program.

OAKLAND PHOTO

A return engagement of the photoplay "The Christian" will be shown at the Oakland Photo Theater on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August 27, 28 and 29. The repetition has been made at the instance of popular request, many residents not having been able to secure seats.

In the photoplay the scenario differs very slightly from the play and is full of many situations of tense and dramatic moments. In writing the story, Hal Reid takes for his theme the conflict between good and evil in the soul of a man and in the heart of a woman.

Edith Storey, the popular and capable photoplay star, plays the role of Glory Quasile, while Earl Williams handles the part of John Storm. The pictures carry the audience through height and depth of sentiment, portraying the deep disappointment, the tribulations, the misunderstandings, but in spite of all, Glory and John find happiness in each other's love. Wonderful scenes of English life are depicted as the reel unfolds, and the film is one of the most popular ever shown at Oakland auditions.

EXPORTS SHOW A MARKED INCREASE

Amount to $61,055,953 in July As Compared With $47,807,231 in 1913.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—Domestic breadstuffs, cotton seed oil, food animals, meat and dairy products, cotton and mineral oils exported from the principal customs districts in July amounted to $61,055,953, as compared with $47,807,231 in July, 1913, the Department of Commerce announced today. Exports for the seven months ending with July were valued at $494,294,768, compared with $485,753,094 in the same period in 1913.

A striking increase in the exportation of wheat was indicated, the number of bushels in July being 26,158,250, valued at $23,840,244, as against 18,953,182 in July last year. Corn shipments showed a decrease. Exports last month were 560,425 bushels, as against 612,264 bushels in July, 1913.

Suez canal authorities announce that the maximum draft of water authorized has been increased by one foot, making it 23 feet. Six years ago the depth was increased to 23 feet.

Special attention has been given to the matter of the projection of the pictures. Two of the latest model motion picture machines are installed and they project an exceptionally brilliant picture with every trace of flicker eliminated. The operating room is metal lined and its position in the rear of the building behind a brick wall separates it entirely from the auditorium. The screen upon which the pictures are shown is a plaster wall eighteen feet high and twenty feet wide, surrounded by a massive mahogany frame.

The twelve-piece orchestra which is to furnish the accompaniment of the performance at the Franklin and Fourteenth streets is the finest of its kind in the city. The orchestra is composed of the most talented musicians in the city. The program is promised for this evening. Most of the reserved seats for tonight have already been sold and even reservations are being made for several days in advance. The evening performance is practically all of the best and numbered and reserved, making reservation by telephone possible. The box office will be open every day from 2 to 9 p. m.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—Domestic breadstuffs, cotton seed oil, food animals, meat and dairy products, cotton and mineral oils exported from the principal customs districts in July amounted to $61,055,953, as compared with $47,807,231 in July, 1913, the Department of Commerce announced today. Exports for the seven months ending with July were valued at $494,294,768, compared with $485,753,094 in the same period in 1913.

A striking increase in the exportation of wheat was indicated, the number of bushels in July being 26,158,250, valued at $23,840,244, as against 18,953,182 in July last year. Corn shipments showed a decrease. Exports last month were 560,425 bushels, as against 612,264 bushels in July, 1913.

Suez canal authorities announce that the maximum draft of water authorized has been increased by one foot, making it 23 feet. Six years ago the depth was increased to 23 feet.

Special attention has been given to the matter of the projection of the pictures. Two of the latest model motion picture machines are installed and they project an exceptionally brilliant picture with every trace of flicker eliminated. The operating room is metal lined and its position in the rear of the building behind a brick wall separates it entirely from the auditorium. The screen upon which the pictures are shown is a plaster wall eighteen feet high and twenty feet wide, surrounded by a massive mahogany frame.

The twelve-piece orchestra which is to furnish the accompaniment of the performance at the Franklin and Fourteenth streets is the finest of its kind in the city. The orchestra is composed of the most talented musicians in the city. The program is promised for this evening. Most of the reserved seats for tonight have already been sold and even reservations are being made for several days in advance. The evening performance is practically all of the best and numbered and reserved, making reservation by telephone possible. The box office will be open every day from 2 to 9 p. m.

It is not only because the general public has thrown a glamour about university life that "The Campus" is among the most popular musical comedies produced in recent years. Walter de Leon, who wrote both the words and the music, has invested this simple story of college life with all the romance and beauty, all the fun and frolic, all the healthy sport and clean joy of living that mark the best traditions of American university life. It is a masterpiece of its kind, and will live long as a clever piece of work, artistically depicting the humor and pathos and fun of college life in a co-educational university.

"The Campus" is being given a sumptuous revival this week at Idora Park, with Perry Hartman in the famous role of Blismark, the college janitor, and Myrtle Dingwell in the role of the varsity

Wedding of Alameda Couple Will Take Place in Autumn
ALAMEDA, Aug. 27.—Miss Mar-

High School Students Before Board of Education for Painting Figures.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 27.—The painting several figures in red on the new found building in the yard at the rear of Alameda high school building by students of the senior class has lead to summary measures by Dr. George C. Thompson, principal, and Superintendent of Schools C. J. Du Four. Two of the boys who were involved have been suspended and will be given trials by the board of education.

The boys went to the school at night and used red paint in many places. They thought it would be a lark to cover a new building with the class number. The authorities thought different, and took quick action in locating the perpetrators.

Two of the boys, those who have been suspended, were on probation from the time they were expelled that they were destroying public property.

Principal Thompson called a meeting of the boys of the senior class and the juniors and the former were given an opportunity to state their side of the case. Those who were involved in the painting of the building admitted their parts. It was then decided that two of the boys be suspended and that all the rest placed on probation, the entire cost of painting the building with two coats of paint.

The city will furnish the paint and the boys will perform the labor, under the direction of the school mechanic.

DIRECT NOMINATIONS;
STATE CONVENTIONS.

It is apparent from the results of the primary election that changes should be made in the law governing the selection of candidates for office. That which was designed to give every man an opportunity of presenting himself to the people of the State, his county or other political sub-division proves to be a bar except to those with adequate means. When it is considered that California is a State practically six hundred miles long and two hundred miles wide, and that a candidate for a State office must figure on visiting every section of it in order to present his claims, it is apparent that none but men with money can afford to enter the lists. The poor man, no matter how great his abilities, is barred. He can only hope to announce himself to the few intimate friends he has in his own home neighborhood and there his efforts must end. The traveling expenses and printers' bills incurred by the leading candidates for State offices represent an enormous sum. The amounts expended by any one of them in this direction would be a small fortune in the eyes of one who has to earn a living by toil. Under this law a candidate must consider that the voters of the commonwealth are holding a series canvass or be left out in the cold.

When the returns shall have all been counted and the totals made the result will show that many candidates for State offices, sincere in a belief in their abilities and their integrity, have spent more money than they could afford, all to no purpose.

What is true of the State is also true of the counties. There are candidates for office in Alameda county who have drawn upon their means for more than they were entitled to draw, and as a consequence their families must live in less comfort in the future, because it will be many days ere their debts are paid. That which is true of this county is true of all counties.

Men nominated for office are presumed to be honest and the vast majority of them are, but it is submitted in all candor and fairness that when a candidate has been taxed by the inexorable rules of this direct primary law to an amount equal to half the salary of the place, or perhaps more, the temptation to recoup is a strong one, and the people as an entirety have no right to place temptation in the way of the public servants they select to perform the duties of government.

There is another phase of the matter that merits attention also. All of us who voted at the primary recall what a mass of names were presented for our consideration. There are a few who perhaps made a study of the character and qualifications of the men and women who were presented for endorsement. But on the other hand how many were there who, outside the principal figures on the tickets, knew anything of the candidates as a mass?

When this government was instituted it was founded on representative lines. It was not a Democracy and the Fathers did not intend it should be. The intention was that political parties, representing the different principles of government should nominate candidates for office, that then the people should exercise their choice at the general elections and hold the successful party responsible for its acts. Under that form of government the United States of America has existed for one hundred and thirty-eight years, and during that time it has grown from thirteen small colonies to forty-eight magnificent States and has acquired possessions in the world to an extent that no longer is Great Britain the only nation on earth on whose possessions the sun never sets.

True, evils have crept in and corrupt men have taken the direction of affairs in many instances, but those results were nothing less than the result of apathy on the part of the electors. The great mass of the people is honest in its composition. When there is a full expression, or anything near it, the will of the people is reflected in the selection of honest men and honest administration of affairs. Where the people are lax in duty the reverse is the rule.

It will be observed that in this primary there has been considerable apathy. When the votes are all counted it will be found that approximately fifty per cent have voted, the remaining electors having taken no part in the selection of candidates.

It is submitted for the careful consideration of the men and women of California, if the plan of the primary which has for its purpose the election of delegates to state, city and county conventions, charged with the duty of selecting candidates and selecting platforms on which candidates shall run is not the best. As at present the candidates are first nominated and make their own platforms. Where is the will of the people expressed in such a plan?

The political sub-divisions of a city or county are made up of voters who know each other and know who are the best men and the best women residing therein. Does it not occur to the thoughtful voter that by the selection of delegates to conventions by votes of party members that the same care and diligence can be exercised as under the present law?

There are many who will decry this argument as "reactionary" and not in the line of progress. We care little for what they say, because we are sincere in the thoughts herein advanced. A primary system such as we have in California is not progressive, but far from it.

We believe in healthy partisanship. If a principle or a set of principles is worth anything; if a principle or principles will benefit the people by being applied, such principle or principles are worth organizing for. The protective tariff system has been a doctrine of the Republican party for years, but what would have become of it had the Republican party disbanded, become non-partisan and "voted for the best men?" The same applies to sound money and correct business and all this talk on the other side is floundering and tommyrot. Parties are essential because parties represent something. Parties are entities; parties may be held responsible for their actions, but with individualism in politics everything is confusion and nothing good comes of it.

U. S. DISTRIBUTES
FISH BY MILLIONS.

Robert S. Johnson, assistant in charge of fish culture in the Department of Agriculture, in a document issued recently, shows that the government is engaged in a mighty work and is contributing largely to the food supply of the nation by the distribution of fish fry and spawn in the various States. It is noted from the report that ninety-five per cent of the output of the fish cultural stations consists of important commercial species, notably the salmon, shad, white fish, pike, perch, yellow perch, white perch, lake trout, cod, pollock, haddock and flat fish. They are hatched in lots of millions and planted, the fresh water species in the large coastal streams and in the Great Lakes, the marine species upon the inshore fishing grounds of the Atlantic.

Catfishes, suckers and buffalo fishes are among the varieties grown and are being planted with good results. The supply distributed is an enormous one. The total eggs, fry and fingerlings, yearlings and adults for the year 1913 reached the enormous total of 3,863,593,282.

Selections were made from fishes able to care for themselves when released. It is noted that the black basses and allied species are not susceptible to artificial propagation, and for its supplies of such the bureau must depend on the natural reproduction of brood fish held in ponds prepared for the purpose. This supply is far short of the demand.

The work of this bureau is commendatory for the reason that as the prices of meat have advanced, fish are expected to take the place of beef, pork and mutton to a certain extent, and that the demand for fish will increase as the years go by is certain. Cultivation of the varieties that make the best food has been the object and within a few years, with proper laws for their protection, the streams of the States and the waters of the sea should show an augmented supply.

Fish should be cheaper than they are, and where government plants stocks in creeks and rivers, the streams should be open to all, under the right sort of restrictions. Inasmuch as the people through taxation, direct and indirect, pay the cost for stocking streams and lakes, the people should have the right to take fish whenever permitted by law to the extent allowed by law without respect to locality or ownership of adjoining ground.

CAPTAIN STOOD WHERE THE CAPTAIN SHOULD.

"Oh, the captain stood where the captain should,
For the law of the sea is grim."—B. Hecht.

Following the rescue of 111 of the 122 persons on board his ship, the Admiral Sampson, which went down in Puget Sound Wednesday, following a collision, the rescues being effected in practically four minutes through his ability and personality, Captain Zemro S. Moore waved a farewell with his hat, shouted a smiling good-bye to those on the rescue ship, Princess Victoria, and went to the bottom, preferring death to abandoning his vessel.

Really it seems a pity that the grim law of the sea should demand such a sacrifice, for, after having done what he could and all that he could, having performed such signal service, it looks as if he ought to have been saved to command another ship.

But the rule admits of no such course. It is violated once in awhile of course, but the general run of mariners prefer to accept death rather than safety in order that an example may be set to others who might be tempted to leave while there was yet a chance to save those intrusted to their care.

Perhaps it is better so; we have no comment to offer in that respect, but we commend this brave man who faced finality with a face full of sunshine and a voice full of cheer to the good people of this State and coast, with the suggestion that to him should be paid the tribute that rightfully belongs to the brave, the real brave of humanity.

Ago Today

We are passing through a heated term. The thermometer for three days has been frolicking in the nineties. Yesterday it touched 95 in the shade and 120 in the open.

The question of the place for holding the Republican county convention has been finally disposed of and Hayward gets the honors. Our enterprising neighbor is to be congratulated on the push and enterprise shown in securing it.

Among the recent visitors at Bartlett Springs were Judge Stevens and family and Hugh Diamond.

The betrothal of Miss Rae L. Jacobs and H. D. Lewen is announced. Students at the State University are to be provided with a commodious boarding establishment if the plans of the University Dining Hall Association, which was incorporated today, are carried out. The enterprise is a private one and those responsible for it are Herman Kover, Harold Whiting, M. W. Haskell, Clarence L. Corey and A. R. Leuschner.

The annual meeting of the Chabot Sheltering and Protection Home trustees took place, those present being Mesdames Remi Chabot, John Yule and J. W. Shanklin and Messrs. J. R. Glascock, Rev. C. W. Weddite, N. W. Spaulding and S. T. Gage.

The treasurer's report showed $1393 53 added to permanent fund and the association's report showed aggregate number of guests at the home for the year to have been 333.

HAS DUG 7000 GRAVES

The cheeriest man in Topeka, and a philosopher of the soil, is Richard Fritz, an old Prussian, who has been employed in the Topeka cemetery for sixteen years and has dug 7000 graves.

If you visit the cemetery on a March afternoon when the wind is flying over the hill and expect to see a Gabriel Grub who, as Mr. Wardle told the Pickwick Club, "consorted with nobody but himself and an old wicker bottle," you will be disappointed. Richard Fritz, leaning on his spade, looks like a Prussian peasant digging a garden.

He greets you cheerily. He has worn out twelve shovels, he tells you, burying men when the clouds of snow whistle into the grave pits and on summer nights when a white mist sails over the moon. "There is nothing sad in this," he declares. "A healthy person is never sad. We all go back to Mother Earth. Every man must earn his daily bread—he plunges his spade in the dirt—so I earn mine."

He was born in Prussia in 1849 and was a frightened little chap who shivered on his father's knee in the firelight when he heard tales of goblins and elves.

"Aren't you afraid of ghosts?"

Richard Fritz digs deep with his shovel. His blue eyes twinkled above his chiseled nose, bronzed by the blow of the wind.

Why is it that a thin mackintosh coat will keep out the rain when even a very heavy coat is no protection against a snow?

If you'll examine the two coats closely you will find the reason why one is rain-proof and the other is not. The cloth coat is full of holes or pores into a sponge only the holes are very much smaller, and the water runs through these holes as it does through a sponge. But there are no holes or pores in the raincoat because it is made either of India rubber which is not porous, or it is made of cloth that has been treated with India rubber.

This is easy enough to understand if we keep in mind that our noses are a sort of window through which the air rushes into our lungs. If the air doesn't come in freely and plentifully we become very uncomfortable and possibly ill. But the inside of the nose is very sensitive, a speck of pepper or a little dust disturbs it and instantly one of its tiny nerves flashes the news to the brain telling all about the trouble; then there's an explosion or a sneeze and the bothersome obstruction is blown away, the air passes in freely again, and we feel a great deal better than before.

The ancient silver penny was the first silver coin struck off in England, and the only one that was current among the Anglo-Saxons until the reign of Edward I. The penny was struck with a cross, so deeply indented that it might easily be parted into two for half-pence, or into four for farthings, hence these names. Copper pennies were coined by Boulton and Watt at Soho and Birmingham, about 1797, and were accounted the finest of British copper currency. They are very valuable today.

Don't Have Headaches

(By Lillian Russell)

Copyright, 1914, by LILLIAN RUSSELL.

A WOMAN with a headache cannot be companionable. The best of sweethearts with a headache is unreasonable, ill-tempered and a woman who has neither husband nor other special cavalier to engross her attention can ruin the peace of mind of every one she meets while she has a headache of perceptible size. No amount of masculine grumbling is likely to change all this, but women themselves might change this if they would comprehend the cause of the malady and then apply their tion or cure.

The trouble is that all American women who have headaches live indoors, where the best air is never good and the worst is poison, and they have none of the exercise which saves men from the popular malady.

There is no reason why women should suffer just as severely from similar transgressions of physical law. True, indoor life is compulsory for a large portion of the day, but special physical exercise in a well-ventilated room is within the reach of almost every woman, and so is a brisk walk in garment not so tight as to prevent free respiration. There is little complaint of headache at summer resorts, where windows are always open and games and excursions continually tempt women. Girls who ride, row, play golf, or swim, and, in short, seldom have headaches; neither do women and girls who are compelled to hoe potatoes or play Maude Muller in the hay fields.

Remember: Let women of all social grades remember that the human machine must have reasonable treatment and be kept at work or play to keep it from rusting.

WILLIE—You asked me to send you a formula for a skin food and face bleach, and you did not give me your address or full name. If you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope I shall be glad to send the formulas to you. Yes, the skin food is used for massaging the face and for building up the sagging tissues. It will keep the skin smooth and firm. The skin food is not used as a cleanser. I have a formula for a cleansing cream that I will also send to you if you wish it.

NELL—There is positively nothing that will change the color of your eyes. Don't be foolish and put anything into your eyes. They are more precious to tamper with. No, I would not advise you to change the shade of your hair. You will ruin it.

M. E.—Hot witch hazel is good for an eye complication. Dip a soft cloth in the witch hazel and place it over the eye. Allow it to remain until cool. If you will send me a stamped addressed envelope I shall send you a formula for astringent lotion which is also good for an oily complexion.

HAZEL—I would advise you to consult an oculist in regard to your eyes. I cannot tell you what is the matter with them. As you have been wearing glasses for such a long time it may be that your glasses do not fit your eyes any more. Your eyes may be growing stronger. It is best to consult your oculist. A good eye wash made of boric acid is the best to use. Use each morning with an eye cup. It strengthens the eyes and makes them clear.

WOMEN TO WEEP? NO! WORK! PRINCESSES SET THE EXAMPLE

Royal Women of Europe Aid in Red Cross Work

BERLIN, Aug. 27.—The day of women who weep while the men fought is gone—and all the royal princesses of Europe are proving it. In Germany several royal women have already volunteered their services to the Red Cross, and in England, too, it is understood here, several of the best known women in the country will aid wounded soldiers.

The women, it is declared, are not joining the move as representatives of any country, but are acting for the good of the suffering generally in their plans. Keen interest in Red Cross preparations is being taken by Princess Mary of England, who is extremely well known here in Berlin. Princess "Fritz" is active in her work for the Red Cross, and Grand Duchess Helen of Russia has also declared that she will aid in the work of caring for the wounded. Princess Wilhelmina of the Netherlands is another woman of royal blood to prepare to aid in the work.

FLIRTATION CAUSES COP TO ARREST ANGRY GROUP

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27.—Utterly disregarding the idle curious around him and the fact that his wife was wildly brandishing an umbrella over his head, a man stepped up to a pretty miss at Third and Market streets yesterday afternoon and began an energetic flirtation. The girl temporarily abandoned her dignity and smiled back. Then the flirtation began.

Police Officer R. A. Curtin edged his way through the crowd and seeing a fellow being in distress, proceeded to get into the fray himself. The man and woman were all in heated argument and words were flying about them. Officer Curtin didn't care to strike a woman, so he shouted out at the top of his voice: "You're all under arrest!"

Whereupon the crowd laughed and the policeman looked around to find that he had entered into the scene of a moving-picture comedy.

U. C. Girl Is Among Refugees of War San Francisco Policeman to Bring Home His Relatives

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27.—Policeman Elmer J. Esperance, 240 Shotwell street, left yesterday for Belgium to bring home his mother, aunt and niece who are refugees in the province of Luxembourg. Esperance had already invoked the aid of Mayor Rolph and the authorities here to assist him. Mayor Rolph called the American embassy in Brussels, but no news could be had owing to the fact that the fighting is within the war zone where the fighting is the heaviest.

The stranded family consists of Mrs. Leonie Esperance, mother of the policeman; her sister, Mrs. Irma Champion, 325 Harrison street, and Miss Ida Champion. Miss Champion is 18 years old and a student at the University of California. Esperance and her party went abroad in May of this year to attend to some legal matters pertaining to the family estate in Belgium. Miss Champion also wished to study music in Europe.

When war broke out the women left their hotel and sought refuge with a family in the country. Shortly after the first available steamer and will attempt to reach St. Cecilia in the province of Luxembourg by first going to Paris and working his way north.

Yesterday Esperance provided himself with proper papers in this city. He will go direct to Washington. There he will procure passports. He will sail on the first available steamer and will attempt to reach St. Cecilia in the province of Luxembourg by first going to Paris and working his way north.

SEEKS DIVORCE FROM HER SECOND HUSBAND.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27.—The much tangled matrimonial affairs of Mrs. Mary Helen Bennet Rosley Manning, now the wife of First Lieutenant Guy E. Manning, United States army, retired, were given another turn yesterday when she filed a complaint in the superior court asking a divorce from the man whom she married here only a few months after her final decree of divorce from Captain James Campbell Rosley, polo player, explorer and soldier of fortune.

A SKIN OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOREVER

Dr. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S Oriental Cream OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

Removes Tan, Pimples, Freckles, Moth patches, Itch, and every blemish on beauty, and defies deflection. It has done the best of 60 years, and it is to be used in the morning and evening. It is the best of all skin preparations. It is the best of all skin preparations. It is the best of all skin preparations.

THE latest way to wear flowers is pinned at the left shoulder of one's coat, just at the edge of the collar. They don't seem to mean anything there, but fashions rarely do mean anything and flowers at the left shoulder seem of a tailor coat have really as much reason as on the left shoulder strap of an evening gown, if they are rather bizarre in effect.

Mrs. Vincent Whitney is introducing the decoration to San Francisco. She was at tea at the St. Francis yesterday in a dark blue pleated dress with a black satin undershirt, a black satin girdle and a small black satin hat. On her left shoulder at the edge of the white plaid collar of her coat was a small "boutonniere" of coral pink flowers and a green leaf. It was piquant and Parisian and Mrs. Whitney's dainty personality and petite figure quite fitted it. There are stately Junos who might appear rather foolish with shoulder boutonnières, if they may be called that so far removed from button holes.

Last spring flowers were one successfully the other day. As every one remembers she was fascinating Enid Gregg, who has always looked as though she were just from the Rue de la Paix, or the races at Longchamp. Her gown was also of blue cloth and her hat was a broad brimmed sailor of American Beauty straw, untrimmed, on her left shoulder a small cluster of deep pink roses.

Last spring flowers were worn below the waist and on evening gowns they were dropped to the edge of tunics and down to the flounce which they are still caught. But on tailor suits they climbed again to the coat lapels and then suddenly to the shoulder. Meanwhile men still wear boutonnières in the buttonholes of their coats, where they properly belong.

MISS BLANDING A BRIDE.

The wedding of Miss Henriette Blanding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Blanding and Christine Goodrich, took place at high noon today at the Fairmont. It was a small affair, but the Red Room had been beautifully decorated for the occasion and was crowded.

Dean Gresham of Grace Cathedral, in the presence of 40 guests. The bride had no attendants. She was crowned in white chiffon and lace over white satin and wore an exquisite lace veil that was a family heirloom. Jack Kittie was best man.

Following the ceremony the breakfast was served at a huge round table covered with a profusion of delicate blossoms. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sharon, Dr. Harry Tevis, Mr. and Mrs. Will Tevis, Gordon Lansing and Lloyd Tevis, Miss Lee Girvin, Mrs. Edith Blanding Coleman, Miss Lena Blanding, Miss John Orr of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Crist of Oakland and Mrs. Elizabeth Goodrich of El Quioto, mother of the groom.

Among relatives abroad who sent cable messages of congratulation were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kennedy of England, Lady Hesketh, Dr. and Mrs. James Lyon (formerly Goodrich) of Paris. The Goodrich family, formerly in Oakland, and many of their old friends have been interested in the wedding. The bride is a granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Tevis, the former of whom was one of the pioneer millionaires of San Francisco.

FOR MISS BROWELL.

Miss Katherine Bangs was hostess at a pretty tea Tuesday afternoon, when she entertained the hostesses for the Brown-Martin wedding next week, and a few additional guests. Among those present were Mrs. Charles Tripler Hutchinson, Miss Helen Goodall, Miss Margaret Mosley, Miss Allene Edoff, Miss Helen Dunning, Miss Suzanne Greenwood, Miss Anna Barbour, Miss Helen Brock, Miss Alice Palmer, Miss Ella Ghirardelli, Miss Doris Bornemann and Miss Gertrude Bangs.

Miss Etta Shrock, who left for the East yesterday morning, was among the invited guests.

LUNCHEON IN ROSS.

The luncheon given by Mrs. John Martin in Ross Valley today was a large affair for Miss Barbara Brownell and her bridesmaids. Mrs. Martin was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Du Val Moore, and the guests included Mrs. L. L. Brownell, who accompanied the merry party that crossed the bay for the occasion. It is the last entertainment to be given for the charming bride-elect before her marriage next week. The wedding will be a brilliant and beautiful affair at the Hutchinson home. It is the wedding gift of the bride's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tripler Hutchinson, who have planned all its details for her.

BRIDE-ELECT FETED.

Miss Antoinette Frey and Miss Rose Barker gave a tea this afternoon in honor of Miss Edna Von Hagen, one of the much entertained engaged girls. The guests included the bridesmaids for the wedding of Miss Von Hagen and Ralph Thornton on September 13, and a number of others.

DINNER AT KEY ROUTE INN.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hines of New York, who have been guests at the Key Route Inn for the past two months, gave a dinner there Tuesday evening for ten guests. Beside the host and hostess, were ers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Hines (Edwin Hines), Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Easton, Miss Anna Easton and Mr. Phillips.

After dinner the party enjoyed several games of bridge till they were enjoying a brief rest, when they came to California for the Ellis-Hines wedding, will leave for their home in the East on Saturday.

IN ENGLAND.

Miss Violet Whitney, who has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. A. D. McGee, at Lake Como, is present in England. Her sister, Mrs. Walter Henry, and Miss Anna Easton and Mr. Phillips.

NOVEMBER WEDDING.

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Morrison and Russell Gordon Vagant, whose engagement was announced this week, will take place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. M. Morrison in Bellevue avenue. Miss Morrison is a charming girl who is popular both in Oakland and Berkeley, where she spent her childhood. Her father, Mr. Morrison, is a member of the same class, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Vagant of Frattville. At present he is connected with the State Immigration Bureau.

TO LIVE IN THE EAST.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Titus left for the East a few days ago to occupy their place, "Stone Ford," on the Hudson. They have leased the estate for a year and will live there permanently in New York with occasional visits to California.

Miss Theresa Rooney of San Francisco, sister of Mrs. Titus, accompanied them East and will be with them for several months.

Among farewell entertainments in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Titus was a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Howard at their home in Piedmont. A dozen guests were entertained.

RETURN FROM SOUTH.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jerome Alexander and little Miss Albertine Alexander have returned from Santa Barbara, where they spent three months, and are at the Edington Dietrich home in Berkeley. Mrs. Alexander is greatly improved in health and her friends are delighted that she will spend the winter in Berkeley. Mrs. Alexander was formerly a guest of honor at a bride party to be given at the home of Miss Ernestine McNeer and a niece of Mrs. Edward Lacey Brayton.

IN HONOR OF BRIDES.

Two of the season's brides, Mrs. Daniel Knox and Mrs. Elmer Booth, will be guests of honor at a bride party to be given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Thomas Van Kent. About 30 guests will be entertained. Mrs. Knox was formerly a guest of honor at a bride party to be given at the home of Miss Helen Button before her wedding early in the summer. Mrs. Booth, who was Miss Ruth Helsen, was a bride of a few weeks ago, and has just returned from her wedding trip to Tahoe.

IN NEW YORK.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Bowles, who arrived in New York recently from Europe, are spending several weeks at the Hotel de Ville, near the metropolis. They may remain in the East until late in the fall as they had planned an absence of several months in Europe, but their plans are indefinite.

HOTELINGS TO RETURN.

Mrs. A. P. Hotelling and Miss J. P. Hotelling, who returned to America recently from Europe, are in New York.

Getting Away From Yesterday

TODAY we must abandon some of yesterday's methods. New ideas, new methods, new friends must be sought today. The battle for a bigger, better, busier business goes on and on. ¶ You install new and better machines, you are seeking more efficient employees, you are constantly improving your business here and there; your capacity is greater, you need more business; now, why not employ a printer who can give you new ideas; a creative, constructive printer who can put a "KICK" and a "PUNCH" into your booklet, folder, circular, letterhead or card. These silent messengers represent you or misrepresent you. Asking to see samples of what the other fellow had printed is taking advantage of his originality. ¶ Let us help you to originate and blaze the trail of your representative with printed matter of the right sort and watch the steady increase of your business. ¶ This department of complete service we now call

THEN -and- NOW

AUGUST 27, 1914.

Fifty-five years ago today the first driven oil well in the United States began to give up its precious fluid. The event marked an epoch in the illumination of the world and the beginning of many huge fortunes. The chief illuminants of that day were sperm, whale, oil, retelling at $2.25 a gallon, "camphene," a derivative of turpentine and very liable to explosion, "coal-oil" obtained from coal and Scotch hoghead, selling at about $2 a gallon. How to light the home and workshop cheaply was a serious economic problem. It was that argument that influenced two Connecticut financiers to advance $1000 to "Doc" Edwin L. Drake, who proposed to drill an oil well near Titusville, Pa., where for generations the local residents had been gathering oil as they found it.

Drake began work in 1857. His early attempts resulted in failure, his financiers refused more money, and his workmen deserted. His scheme became the joke of the countryside. "He might as well drill for whiskey," remarked one local spectator. Then on the verge of starvation, Drake finally secured financial aid from Pennsylvania and resumed his operations. Months passed. Several drilling methods proved fruitless, until he sank a six-inch iron pipe. At a depth of 71 feet the pioneer finally found traces of oil, and the next morning the liquid was bubbling freely upon the ground. It was the beginning of one of the greatest of modern industries.

LATEST NEWS FROM RICHMOND

PRIMARY BRINGS GRIEF TO MANY

Tedious Hours and Headaches Remaining Factors in the Voting at Richmond.

RICHMOND, Aug. 27.—With the last ballot counted and the last total posted in the county and the primary election relegated into past history, the best that can be said of the election of last Tuesday is that it taxed the capacity of the the polling places, left a bunch of headaches in its wake and closed the political aspirations of more candidates than any election ever held.

As a record-breaker it goes down into history. There were more candidates; it took more time to count the ballots and there were more headaches and disappointments.

To get down to facts it took 24 hours to count the vote in Precinct 15, 927 Macdonald avenue. This was the last precinct counting to be done and when Mrs. Julia Linnell, Mrs. Lena Jardini, Edward D. Murphy, J. I. Korman, Charles E. Clark, and M. W. Truitt, who were the officers at this polling place, finished their tasks, it was with bleary eyes, a wealth of aches and a word to show they were mighty thankful. They had 273 votes to count.

Over on the west side the voting counting took until the sun appeared in the heavens. The clerks thought was going some but when they came over to the east side they found that there were others only about half through.

The vote at the First House No. 2, which was one of the largest cast, took 15 hours to count. There were complaints heard on all sides. All of the clerks declared they never would take the job again, and it was amusing to note the number who asserted they had never sought the job.

Husbands came down and relieved their wives and gave them a chance to enjoy themselves. Others brought hot coffee and rolls and sandwiches.

There were 120 names besides numerous ones written in and this took time.

RICHMOND CLUB WILL BE BUSY DURING WINTER

RICHMOND, Aug. 27.—Marking the beginning of the social and business activities of the Richmond Club a meeting of the board of directors will be held at the home of Mrs. C. S. Gibson this afternoon when the chairman of the various committees will be chosen for the ensuing year.

President Mrs. Zimmerman announced yesterday that the first meeting of the club will be held next Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the library. The year, she asserted, would be an exceedingly active one for the club.

FRANK E. ADAMS DROPS DEAD AT HIS HOME

RICHMOND, Aug. 27.—Frank E. Adams, one of the best known business men of this city, dropped dead at his home, Tenth street and Barrett avenue, last evening.

Adams had just returned from the theater where he had spent the evening with his wife and a party of friends. Death was due to nervous prostration.

Adams had lived in Richmond for 12 years, having been manager of the Richmond Lumber Company during all of that time up to a few months ago, when he resigned to engage in the fuel business. He leaves a wife here and several brothers and sisters who reside in the East.

STATE DRY WORKER IS SPEAKER IN RICHMOND

RICHMOND, Aug. 27.—R. A. M. Brown, state superintendent of young people's work in the California Dry Federation, spoke last night at a meeting of the local organization held in the auditorium of Lincoln school.

There were many of the temperance workers present and much enthusiasm was shown for the coming campaign.

"The liquor traffic in California is going to be the ruin of the state," said Brown. "There is as much enthusiasm outside of the churches as in them for a dry state and it will be the fault of the churches if it is not made wet." J. Frazier Evans, district superintendent of young people's work, also spoke and gave interesting data on the state-wide fight.
